Intervention Convention

Trauma Responsive Schools:
Creating a Culture of Care and
Restorative Practices

Wednesday, November 7, 2018

West Jordan Middle School

7550 S. Redwood Road, West
Jordan, Utah

8:30-3:30

According to the results of the latest SHARP survey, over 25% of Utah's adolescents feel sad or hopeless: The numbers of students in psychological distress; who are victims of bullying; or are thinking about suicide are increasing. To address these issues, schools have to reframe how they deal with trauma and conflict.

The Intervention Convention is not a "sit and git" but rather an opportunity to learn from, and network with outstanding Utah educators and administrators.

The day is designed around the interests expressed by participants. Whether you are just starting to explore restorative justice or are effectively implementing responsive practices and changing the culture of your school, this day will be of benefit to you.
