Please use the following as a guide for your 2021-22 Outstanding Educator Nomination.

Higher consideration and scores will go to nominations that include specific stories and compelling examples describing your nominee. These examples can come from colleagues, parents and/or students. Members of the JEF Awards Recognition Committee will read each nomination and rate each of the categories below from 1 to 5.

Please address the following four categories:

1. Keeping in mind current circumstances, what specific, creative things does this teacher do to support and encourage student growth academically, emotionally and behaviorally? How are students growing in these areas?
2. What does this teacher do above and beyond normal teaching? Is your nominee a mentor to other teachers? In what ways is your teacher a leader among their peers?
3. How does this teacher inspire students and create a positive impact in students' lives, the classroom, the school and/or the community? How does this teacher share optimism and give hope to students? How does your nominee maintain a positive personal attitude?
4. Tell us why you love this teacher. What do parents and others say about this teacher? Add any other powerful examples that tell the story of why this teacher is your outstanding educator nominee for 2021-22.
