

PRESENTS:

SUICIDE AND TRAUMATIC DEATH: CHALLENGES AND COPING STRATEGIES

A PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE

Friday, April 8, 2016

Utah Valley University

8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Joanne Cacciatore

VIA VIDEO CONFERENCE

Cost: $79 if registered by March 18;

$89 if registered March 19-April 6

Pre-registration is required – Lunch included

Register online at www.uvu.edu/religiousstudies/bradleycenterconference.html

For information or questions, email us at www.bradleycentergrief.org or call 801-302-0220

6.0 CEUs approved by NASW for social workers

Join us to explore the psychological, social, emotional and spiritual impact of sudden death on those who are left behind, and learn how to help clients cope successfully with the complicated grief that follows. This conference is designed for social workers, psychologists, chaplains, nurses, school counselors and others who assist those grieving the loss of a loved one through suicide or traumatic death.

CO-SPONSORS:

Over 125 Years Serving Utah Families

Mortuaries • Cemeteries • Mausoleums • Cremation Center

Dr. Joanne Cacciatore is a professor of social work at Arizona State University and founder of the non-profit MISS Foundation, which provides online grief support, mentoring and counseling for those who have experienced the death of a child. She specializes in counseling those affected by traumatic loss, and her work has been featured in major media including People and Newsweek, the New York Times, Boston Globe, CNN, National Public Radio and the Los Angeles Times. She is the mother of five, and lost her infant daughter, Cheyenne, in 1994.