

Best Practices/Instruction course

This course is designed to help new teachers understand and use solid classroom management and instruction principles. Teachers will learn how to write classroom rules, rewards, consequences, and procedures to facilitate smooth classroom operation. The class will also focus on best practices in instruction. Teachers will have an opportunity to read and discuss these practices, then apply them in their classroom, and finally, reflect upon their implementation. Successful participation in a Professional Learning Community (PLC) will be discussed and practiced.
