

Intradistrict Communication

DATE: January 26, 2023

TO: Administrators

FROM: Michael Anderson, Associate Superintendent
Travis Hamblin, Director of Student Services

SUBJECT: USBE - Comprehensive School Threat Assessment Guidelines (CSTAG) Workshop

School Administrators and other School Safety Friends,

You are invited to join the Utah State Board of Education (USBE) School Safety Center for a Comprehensive School Threat Assessment Guidelines (CSTAG) Workshop. This workshop will prepare you to use the CSTAG model with your school threat assessment multi-disciplinary team.

- Date: February 13, 2023 (Monday)
Optional Train-the-Trainer (TTT) February 14-15 with limited spots
- Time: 8:00 AM - 4:00 PM (check-in at 7:30 AM)
- Location: Jordan School District - Auxiliary Services Building
7905 S Redwood Rd, West Jordan, UT 84088
- Presenter: Dr. Farah Williams
- Target Audience: School employees who serve on the school's threat assessment multidisciplinary team, such as School Administrators (e.g., principal or assistant principal), School Resource Officers, and School-based Mental Health Providers (School Counselors, School Psychologists, or School Social Workers).
- Structure: This training is offered as a 7-8 hour training for up to 80 individuals that consists of in-person instruction and peer-to-peer collaboration. A manual will be provided for registered participants.
- Content: What is covered in the workshop?
- Registration: Eventbrite

In accordance with 53G-8-802, R277-400, R277-403, R277-736.

There will be a limited, invitation-only CSTAG Train-the-Trainer (TTT) held February 14-15, 2023. If you are interested in having someone from your Local Education Agency (LEA) become a CSTAG trainer, please email me, Rhett Larsen.

Visit <https://www.schoolta.com/> for more information about Dr. Cornell and CSTAG.