

De-Mystifying Masteryconnect for the Everyday English Teacher

Frustrated by Masteryconnect? Think it won't work for you and your Language Arts classroom? Been there. Done that.

Come learn tips and tricks from two secondary teachers who have been in the trenches and dug through the mire to figure out how to use Masteryconnect. In this class we aren't reinventing the wheel. We will be going over how to take assignments you already have created/use/and love and format them for easy entry into Masteryconnect.

We'll teach you how we:

- Worked together in PLCs to lighten the load in creating/finding assessments that would fit the Masteryconnect bill
- Focused on assessing standards without writing/giving tests all the time to our students
- Found the freedom to teach what we want, while knowing that we are teaching/assessing the whole curriculum
