

serving

Family to Family Network presents

DSPD 101: Hop on the Waitlist

Join us online

April 15th

7:00pm-8:30pm

DSPD stands for The Division of Services for People with Disabilities. But what exactly is DSPD, and why should I be on the waitlist? What are the benefits for people waiting for services? Join us to answer these questions and more! Hosted by Amber Beck, Jordan School District Parent Consultant, and Calleen, Family to Family Network Coordinator, with guest Anna Dees DSPD Intake Specialist.

Register: bit.ly/DSPD101JSD

Questions?

801-272-1051 | ftofn@utahparentcenter.org

Family to Family Network is a statewide network that educates, strengthens, and supports families of persons with disabilities, including those in services with or on the waitlist for DSPD services.

a project of the

Family to Family Network presents

DSPD 101: Hop on the Waitlist

Join us online

April 15th

7:00pm-8:30pm

DSPD stands for The Division of Services for People with Disabilities. But what exactly is DSPD, and why should I be on the waitlist? What are the benefits for people waiting for services? Join us to answer these questions and more! Hosted by Amber Beck, Jordan School District Parent Consultant, and Calleen, Family to Family Network Coordinator, with guest Anna Dees DSPD Intake Specialist.

Register: bit.ly/DSPD101JSD

Questions?

801-272-1051| ftofn@utahparentcenter.org

Family to Family Network is a statewide network that educates, strengthens, and supports families of persons with disabilities, including those in services with or on the waitlist for DSPD services.