SUBJECT: Extended Year Special Educator Stipends 2018-19

The extended school year stipend that was approved with the passage of Senate Bill 2 in the 2008 legislative session will remain in effect for the 2018-19 school year. The legislation allows a specific group of special educators to work up to 5 additional days for a $200/day stipend (plus applicable benefits). The Bill applies to Special Education Teachers (Preschool and School-Age) and Speech-Language Pathologists only (Speech-Language Technicians are not included). The number of days and stipend amount are prorated based upon the educators assigned FTE equivalent. Teachers who have been hired on Letters of Authorization will count as licensed teachers and will be eligible for the stipend.

Please note that eligible staff will only be allowed to work these days two weeks before the first contract day of the 2018-19 school year and two weeks after the 2018-19 school year ends. Special educators in year-round schools will be eligible to work during off-track days, but not vacation periods (e.g., holiday recess, Spring Break, etc.). Eligible staff in year-round schools may work days in July 2018 as long as they are within two weeks prior to the first contract day. Days worked must be full days (half-days for part-time) and not a combination of assorted hours.

Please note that the stipends will only apply to specific duties related to the IEP process itself and all work must be completed in the school setting. Examples include the following:

- IEP related duties
- Special education records maintenance
- File preparation
- Report preparation
- Assessment related duties
- Conferring with parents
- Other paperwork related to the implementation of IDEA

The extended days may not be used for professional development, district level planning, setting up or closing down classrooms or direct student instruction.

The District will be required to collect data and submit documentation of the days worked at two points during the year (by September 30th and June 30th), as well as request reimbursement from the Utah State Office of Education. Because of these timelines, staff must submit the required Completed Work Report (which acts as the timesheet) by the specified due dates.

Please read the enclosed information carefully. Submit the Completed Work Report at the end of the month that the days were worked. Do not hold the work report over until the end of the school year. Please note that any days worked within two weeks prior to the start of the 2018-19 school year must be submitted by Friday, August 24, 2018 and any days worked within two weeks after the school year must be submitted no later than Friday, June 21, 2019 (we recognize that this does not correspond with the year-round calendar). These deadlines must be followed in order for us to request reimbursement from the Utah State Board of Education by their specified timelines.

Remember that these extended days should not overlap with any contract or calendared days. Teachers in year-round schools must be careful not to overlap these days with either contract days or additional days worked on the “Year-round Special Education Personnel Calendar”. The Special Education Department will be required to monitor that there is no duplication of any days. The tracking of these days for reimbursement will be time-consuming for the Special Education Department, so your attention and efforts to avoid any overlapping days will be appreciated! You will not be paid for more than 5 days in the 2018-19 school year, so please keep track of the total days you work. Please make a copy of the attached Work Report timesheet if you plan to split up your days worked during the year.

If you have questions, please contact the Teacher Specialist assigned to your school. Please submit the Completed Work Report to Debbie Fairbourn in the Special Education Office.
