

Private, Home, Online, and Charter School Student Extracurricular Participation and Eligibility

May 2023

	Private School Student	Home School Student	Online School Student	Charter School Student
What activities can the student participate in?	An extracurricular activity at a public school that isn't offered at the private school	No restrictions.	No restrictions.	An extracurricular activity at a public school that isn't offered at the charter school
Where can the student participate?	The school in whose boundaries the custodial parent resides OR the school from which the student withdrew to attend private school, providing the student did not establish eligibility somewhere else in grades 9 or 10.	The school in whose boundaries the custodial parent resides OR the school from which the student withdrew to attend home school, providing the student did not establish eligibility somewhere else in grades 9 or 10.	The school in whose boundaries the custodial parent resides OR the school from which the student withdrew to attend online school, providing the student did not establish eligibility somewhere else in grades 9 or 10.	The school in whose boundaries the custodial parent resides OR the school from which the student withdrew to attend charter school, providing the student did not establish eligibility somewhere else in grades 9 or 10. USBE may establish additional rules about participation at other schools than those listed above.
What requirements must be met?	Association's initial eligibility requirements, school's entry requirements for activity, enrollment requirements for a traditionally enrolled student.	Association's initial eligibility requirements, school's entry requirements for activity, enrollment requirements for a traditionally enrolled student. May not have attendance-based eligibility requirements.	Association's initial eligibility requirements, school's entry requirements for activity, enrollment requirements for a traditionally enrolled student.	Association's initial eligibility requirements, school's entry requirements for activity, enrollment requirements for a traditionally enrolled student.
Can the school put additional requirements on the student because they are not a traditionally enrolled student?	No.	No.	No.	No.

	Private School Student	Home School Student	Online School Student	Charter School Student
What fees must the student pay?	The same fees as a traditionally enrolled student must pay for the activity. May be required to pay the student activity fee if they receive the same benefit of the fee that are available to traditionally enrolled students.	The same fees as a traditionally enrolled student must pay for the activity. May be required to pay the student activity fee if they receive the same benefit of the fee that are available to traditionally enrolled students.	The same fees as a traditionally enrolled student must pay for the activity.	The same fees as a traditionally enrolled student must pay for the activity. USBE may establish rules on fees paid by charter students. Fees must be the same as for traditionally enrolled students.
What fees must the student's school of enrollment pay?	None addressed in HB 209.	N/A	"A share of the school district's costs for the extracurricular activity," as determined by USBE.	"A share of the school district's costs for the extracurricular activity," as determined by USBE.
Is the student eligible for fee waivers?	Likely yes, although not specifically addressed in HB 209.	Likely yes, although not specifically addressed in HB 209.	Yes.	Yes.
Does this apply to competitive try-outs as well as open selection groups?	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
Other guidelines on eligibility or participation?	If the student exits public school for a private school mid-semester or mid-season, public school makes an academic eligibility assessment based on the student's work in each class; must have been academically eligible at time of departure. Can appeal determination of ineligibility	If the student exits public school for home school mid-semester or mid-season, public school makes an academic eligibility assessment based on the student's work in each class; must have been academically eligible at time of departure. Can appeal determination of ineligibility	N/A	N/A