

Kids with High-Functioning Autism: Help for School and Home

Presented by Melisa Genaux,
Autism/Behavior Specialist

This is a 3-Session Class

 January 14, 2016

Features of High-Functioning Autism/Asperger Syndrome that Affect Social Growth, Self-Regulation Skills and Academics; Quick, Practical Strategies for Preventing and Addressing Issues in Each Area

 January 21, 2016

Really Effective Behavior Management Strategies for Kids with HFA/AS: Practical Magic for School and Home

 February 4, 2016

More Behavior, Social Skills and Self-Regulation Tips; Recognizing and Addressing Depression and Anxiety as They Co-occur with HFA/AS

4:30-7:00 pm

ASB C100 (formerly the Board Room)-
7905 S. Redwood Road, West Jordan

This training is for: Teachers (Special Ed and General Ed), parents and other family members, related service staff, and administrators.

Please register by contacting Amanda Hamblin in the Special Education Department at 801-567-8176 or Amanda.hamblin@jordandistrict.org

Learn effective strategies for communication, behavior management, social development and self-regulation skills.