

Dear Jordan School District Teachers and Educators,

Greetings from Tanner Dance! We would like to invite your students, faculty and chaperones to join us for free POPS matinee showing of Children's Dance Theatre's Gwinna on: Tuesday, June 21 at 10:00 AM at the Sandy Amphitheatre (1245 E. 9400 S. Sandy, UT 84094). To reserve any number of regular or lawn seats, please send an email to tannerdance@utah.edu or call 801-581-7374. When you make your reservation, please be prepared to provide the following information: school name or grade level(s)/teacher name if applicable, number of teachers attending, number of students attending, and number of chaperones.

GWINNA, based on Barbara Helen Berger's enchanting book and brought into motion by the young artists of the University of Utah Children's Dance Theatre, tells the story of a girl who grows up never knowing that she can fly. Gwinna only knows that she can hear a mysterious song in the wind that fills her with longing. On her twelfth birthday, she is summoned to the home of the ancient Mother of the Owls. There, Gwinna discovers at last how to use her wings, and she sets off on a quest in search of the secret of the music of the wind. CDT students, from second grade through high school, have selected parts of the story to bring to life through movement and music. Creative choreography, an original score, and exquisite costumes help to create this captivating fairy tale. We hope that you will be able to join us!

Thank you for your time and we shall look forward to hearing from you soon!

Best Regards,
Tatiana Mixco
