

You're Invited! Through a blended learning approach, all school staff are invited to participate in a series of engaging, interactive, and motivating sessions to learn the following:

- Understand the impact that trauma, as well as the COVID-19 pandemic, has on our students.
- Gain insights into the “language of trauma” and how to successfully de-escalate students.
- Learn proactive strategies and tools to implement with students in all grade levels.
- Organize trauma-informed school initiatives with the Classroom180 Framework.

A Blended Trauma-Informed Training Series

District-Wide PD Training

with Heather T. Forbes, LCSW

Internationally Recognized Developmental Trauma Expert and Best-Selling Author of Help for Billy and Beyond Consequences, Logic, and Control.

This FREE training is brought to you courtesy of PROJECT AWARE

LIVE Zoom Sessions:

Tuesday

Sept. 29, 2020

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

“Fifty Shades of Trauma”

This session is designed to give participants a solid foundation of what defines trauma, how trauma impacts a student’s brain, and why students act out in negative ways due to their experiences of trauma.

Tuesday

October 20, 2020

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

“Bringing It All Together with Your Questions”

Using YOUR questions posted in the TIOA, Heather will do a LIVE Q&A in this final session to make sure you are equipped to apply the science of trauma with your students.

This trauma-informed training includes two parts:

Part 1: Two LIVE training sessions

From her studio in Boulder, Colorado, Heather will come to you LIVE via Zoom to present two live sessions. See the dates and times to the left.

Part 2: Trauma-Informed Online Academy (TIOA)

In between the LIVE sessions, you will be given access to the TIOA to choose your own coursework, allowing you to tailor this training to your needs with the following:

- Basic Track
- Administrator Track
- Advanced Track
- School Support Track

LIMITED SEATING! REGISTER TODAY.
CLICK HERE.