

New Online Class Language Arts K-6 Writing Foundations

January 24 – March 7, 2016

Writing Foundations is a course designed to provide teachers with evidence-based recommendations for improving student writing.

Topics to be covered:

- Daily writing instruction
- Using the writing process
- Models and purposes of writing
- Writing foundational skills
- Creating an engaged community of writers

This is a six-week course worth 15 re-licensure points.

Please register for Online Language Arts K-6 Writing Foundations on JPLS course #101006.

